Merry Christmas

THE MAGIC OF LIGHT

At no other time of the year is the story of light as present as at Christmas.

Everything sparkles and shines, decorated streets and front gardens astonish not only children's eyes. The custom of decorating a Christmas tree with candles dates back to the 18th century, the first Christmas tree candles were nutshells filled with oil. After the invention of the light bulb, they were replaced by electric candlelight. Today, LED lighting is a symbol of economy in the use of electricity and a commitment to sustainability.

The tradition of family Christmas and the accompanying decorating of houses and front gardens has been an integral part of Christmas for over 100 years. Around the globe, reinterpreted year after year, we give our homes a very special glow during this magical time to spend the days and weeks around the festive season with our loved ones.

We wish you lots of pre-Christmas inspiration and would like to take you into the coming Christmas magic with our decorative stars, sparkling candles, figurines, baubles and lightchains.

OUTDOOR DECORATION

It gets dark early in the Christmas season. When the lights start to shine outside in the garden, on the balcony or the terrace, our hearts beat a little faster. We prefer to sit comfortably in the warmth with a cup of tea or cocoa and let our souls dangle. We look out of the window with joyful anticipation of the festivities. Here is a twinkling star, there are fireworks and the reindeer proudly holds up its antlers. The glowing outdoor decorations not only amaze passers-by, they also delight us from inside with their unique Christmas flair.

LIGHTCHAINS

With the fairy lights for indoors and outdoors, there are no limits to creativity when decorating. They range from the classic chain of lights for the Christmas tree to more playful Christmas garlands. The choice is wide: small LEDs, large LEDs, spherical LEDs - warm white, cold white and colourful. No matter whether your home is large or small - with the variety of options, you can bring the stars into your home. This is how you create a very special atmosphere, not only at Christmas time. Fairy lights bring cosy warmth to every child's room or spread a festive mood at every festival that needs to be celebrated.
